

Tears of Love

By Randal S. Doaty

I had to find a special way,
Through tears of love that I could say,
How much you mean to me.

Glass Tears will never fade away,
Just as the love we share today,
A promise we shall keep.

A tear of love which you can hold,
As years pass by and we grow old,
Now rests within your hand.

A Tear of Love for all to see,
Has come from deep inside of me,
And now belongs to you.
