

The Valentine's Tear

By Randal S. Doaty

To say you are my Valentine,
Is more than a cliché,
The love for you within my heart,
Needs much more than a day.

You are my special Valentine -
The one who stole my heart.
I think about you all the time,
When we must be apart.

To know you truly love me -
Is what I need to hear.
To show I truly love you -
I offer you this tear.

Tears are used for Valentine's,
When hearts alone can't say,
My love for you keeps growing,
With every passing day.

You will be my Valentine,
Today and evermore,
I share this special tear with you,
To show my love is pure.
